

Kyle Dugger
1474 Englewood Lake
Union City, Tennessee, 38261
731 796 0740
kmdugger@earthlink.net

Professional Objective

My professional objective is to be employed by a progressive company in a position, which is challenging and will allow me to use my professional skills to benefit the company.

Education

Attended to junior year at the University of Tennessee at Martin, Martin, Tennessee
Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering

January 2004 – Present

France Printing

Union City, Tennessee

Printing Press Operator

Operator of bindery and folding machinery

June 1998 – December 2002

C & S Electric

Martin, Tennessee

Engineering Assistant – Goodyear, Union City, Tennessee

Work directly with Final Finish Electrical Engineer during development, design, and installation of new systems

Work directly with electrical contractors and maintenance electricians to facilitate installation of new systems and aid in troubleshooting as needed

Work directly with draftsman to create and update electrical prints

Design, development and programming of operator interface for machines and systems

Design, development and programming of machines and systems

Machine control and automation

Offer suggestions as to the operation of machines and systems

Make changes to machines and systems to ensure that they meet the current needs of production

Through this job I have gained experience in the following areas:

- PLC programming
- Operator interface design
- Machine and system automation
- Electrical print design
- Electrical system design
- Control system design
- Safety systems
- Maintenance training
- Goodyear sort cell operation
- Computers and computer systems
- Conveyor controls
- AC Drives
- Design and installation of new systems
- Data collection systems
- Management of projects
- Management of electricians

Network Administrator Assistant - Goodyear, Union City, Tennessee

Work directly with plant personnel to aid in troubleshooting and maintaining personal computers

Work directly with Computer Administrator during design and implementation of production monitoring and data logging systems

Install new software, device drivers

Troubleshoot computer networks

Setup and configuration of new computers for use by plant personnel and production systems

Kyle Dugger
1474 Englewood Lake
Union City, Tennessee, 38261
731 796 0740
kmdugger@earthlink.net

January 1998 – May 2004

Masquerade Theatre

Union City, Tennessee
Audio Technician / Technical Director / Carpenter

Audio design for theatre productions
Operation of professional sound system during productions
Set design and construction
Setup and removal of Audio and Lighting equipment for productions
Site Manager, Project Management, Maintenance, Rigging, Electrician

June 1997 – August 1998

Hospital Flower Shop

Union City, Tennessee

Made deliveries
Setup and removal of equipment used for weddings, parties, etc
General shop work

January 1996 – Present

Internally Sound

Milan, Tennessee

Operation of professional sound system
Provide sound for concerts, churches and musicals
Work as both a front of house engineer and monitor engineer

September 1995 – Present

Second Baptist Church

Union City, Tennessee
Volunteer Work – Sound Technician

Design, installation, startup and operation of professional sound system for the church auditorium and a professional touring sound system

Work with audio crew and church personnel during weekly services and special productions

Offer advice and assistance to church staff in regards to scheduling and flow of events during weekly church services and other occasions as needed

Summer of 1994, 1995, 1996

Pioneer Hi-Bred International Inc

Union City, Tennessee
Summer Work

Corn research division
Thinning rows, pollinating, tagging plants